CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

May 4, 2005.

P.C.:

The Additional District Judge, has allowed the application for the grant of an interim injunction. The documents which have been discussed in paragraph 14 of the impugned order show prima facie that the Respondent was in lawful possession of the property. These are prima facie findings at the interlocutory stage. No interference under Article 227 is warranted. The Petition is accordingly rejected. It would be open to the Petitioner to apply before the Learned Trial Judge for the expeditious hearing of the suit.
